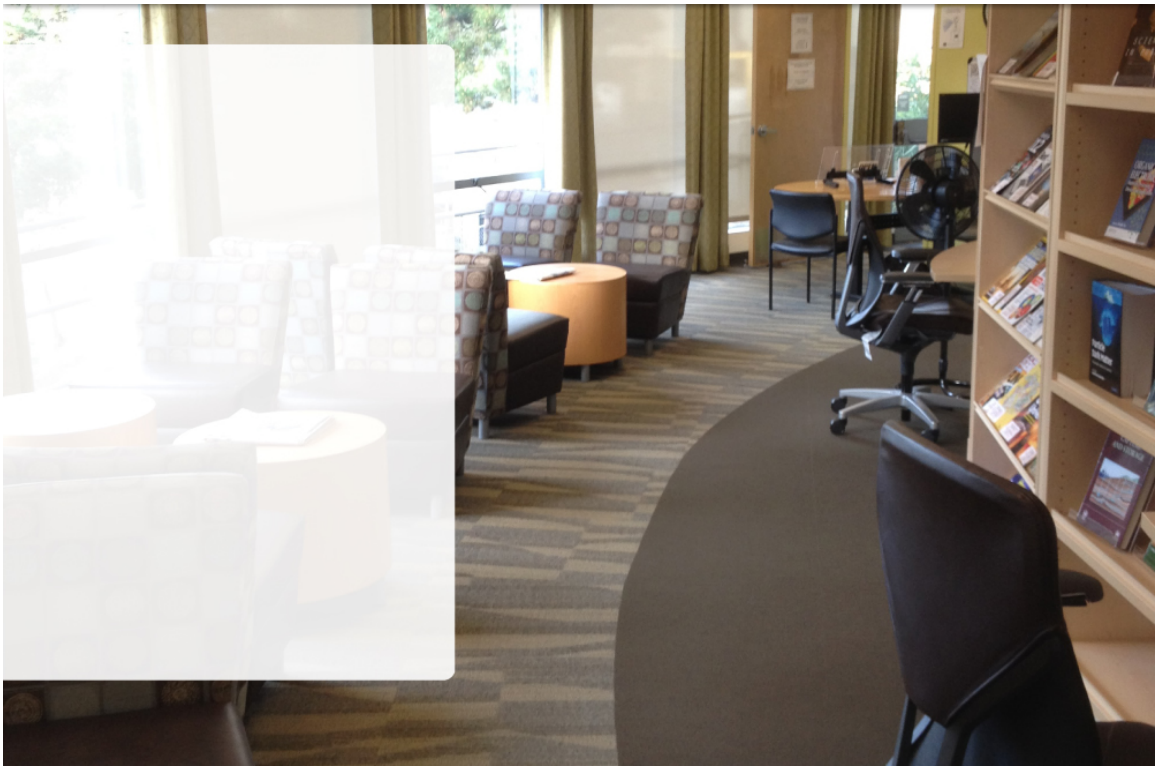
Library



Welcome

The Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory Library is your gateway to personal research services, a collaborative catalog, science databases, electronic journals and books. The library provides responsive and timely information access to aid Berkeley Lab scientists in conducting their research.

Check out our Reading Lounge located in the lower section of the cafeteria M-F 6:30 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Bring your favorite beverage, your laptop, and yourself to our air conditioned reading and meeting space. If you have questions or need further assistance, please submit a Help Request.
