considerations....

1. Platform Neutral
2. Trivial support for external collaborators
3. Integrates with IDM strategy (Shib/CAS/OpenID)
4. Security built in - easy to do the right thing.
5. Not one size fits all
6. Not necessarily provided by IT

2 things to change your thinking about

- Attachments in email.
- Attachments period.

gdocs.lbl.gov

- Documents, Spreadsheets, and Presentations.
- All LBL People have accounts.
- Share and collaborate with anyone with a google account.
- Publish openly, or restrict to individuals.
- Work together in realtime.

gsites.lbl.gov

- Small collaborative websites.
- Restrict editing and viewing, or publish openly.
- Integrate content, share files, wiki-like functionality.
- Fast simple sharing.

commons.lbl.gov

- Powerful collab tool based on wiki-thinking.
- Will be “federated” early FY10
- Has replaced existing wiki, should replace eRoom for many at LBL.
- This tool gets better the more you use it. Many “hidden” features.
- Learn by doing!

eRoom

- It's time.
- Goal: 1 Year Transition Period
- Step 1 begins now: Play with the other tools and figure out what works for you.
- Highly document-centric collaborations are the most challenging.
- More soon.

Celoxis

- Lightweight webified project management tools are an interest.
- Celoxis pilot.
- Contact help@lbl.gov to participate

Do you know other tools?

BERKELEY LAB

Realtime & Video

Readytalk

- Audio via telephone, screen/slides via screen.
- .03c per minute per participant, no charge for online.
- No video yet.
- Can record meetings for later replay (best if you are already using the tool)

TokBox

This is a great tool...

... that we have absolutely nothing to do with.

BERKELEY LAB

Seminar & Meeting Capture

- Q2FY10 Target for a suite of new tools.
- Camtasia Relay: Free to all Lab employees, small program on your desktop captures screen & audio.
- Capture Station: Loaner device captures audio, screen, projector, etc.
- Loaner cameras available now.

Live Streaming

- Clarified service levels coming within the month.
 - Professional
 - Fixed Camera
 - DIY & Loaners

mobile

- Mobile Device Integrated Strategy
(Direction, Support Model, etc)
- m.lbl.gov Pilot/Demo
- Apps Contest ($2500!)
