

CALIFORNIA ARCHIVES MONTH

OCTOBER 2009

Students of the Presentation Convent School at Powell and Lombard Streets in San Francisco, 1904. Courtesy of the Presentation Archives, San Francisco.

Female ship fitters, often embodied in "Rosie the Riveter" images, at Mare Island Naval Shipyard, 1945. Courtesy of the National Archives - Pacific Region (San Francisco).

Mary Frances Galtner (1869-1930), midwife-nurse-founder of the first nursing home in Esparto, circa 1890s. Courtesy of the Yolo County Archives.

Spanish Flat, California, 1871. (Disqueereotype). Courtesy of the California State Library, Special Collections.

First Gong at the Korean Bell Tower at Fort MacArthur in Los Angeles with Mayor Tom Bradley and Congressman Glenn Anderson, 1976. Courtesy of Archives and Special Collections, Library, California State University, Dominguez Hills.

Pasite Maggie "Tabuce" Howard in Yosemite Valley was employed by the National Park Service to demonstrate traditional Indian skills to visitors, 1936. Courtesy of the National Park Service, Western Region.

Madres de la Guerra (War Mothers) in front of the statue honoring Mexican World War II veterans at Centro Mexicano, 1949. Courtesy of the Sacramento Archives and Museum Collection Center.

Immigrants at the Angel Island State Park Immigration Station, circa 1910. Courtesy of the California State Parks.

San Manuel women with baskets, circa 1938. Courtesy of the National Archives - Pacific Region (Laguna Niguel).

Japanese "picture bride" Kotsui Korematsu, 23 years old in this photograph from her immigration and Naturalization Service files, became the mother of Fred Korematsu, renowned activist who opposed World War II Japanese American internment, 1914. Courtesy of the National Archives - Pacific Region (San Francisco).

— VISIT — www.archivesmonth.org
 FOR INFORMATION ON
 ARCHIVES MONTH EVENTS
 IN CALIFORNIA

California State Senator Bill Greene (back row center) with schoolchildren, teachers, and staff in front of local landmark Bill's Taco House in Los Angeles, circa 1960s. Courtesy of the California State Archives.

Five Mexican workers in front of camp building at unknown location, 1942. Courtesy of the University of California, Davis, Library, Special Collections.

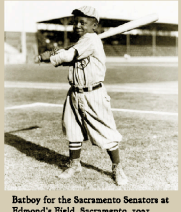

Three young Chinese children dressed for Moon dinner, circa 1915. Courtesy of the History San Jose.

Cowboys pose for their portrait in Siskiyou County, circa 1880. Courtesy of the Special Collections, Meriam Library, California State University, Chico.

Disqueereotype of a Maiden man, circa 1890s. Courtesy of the Braun Research Library, Austy National Center of the American West, Los Angeles.

Boy for the Sacramento Senators at Edmond's Field, Sacramento, 1912. Courtesy of the Sacramento Public Library, Special Collections.

ARCHIVES MONTH SPONSORS

Society of California Archivists:
www.calarchivists.org

California Historical Records Advisory Board:
www.sos.ca.gov/archives/level3_shrab.html

National Archives and Records Administration:
www.archives.gov

California State Archives, Office of the Secretary of State:
www.sos.ca.gov/archives/archives.htm

Hindu construction crew, believed to be photographed in early 1900s, near the Loyalton area logging railroads. Courtesy of the California State Railroad Museum.

Poster design by Alison Wannamaker for the 2009 California Archives Month Coordinating Committee.