

Don't Get Caught!

People trying to gain access to our systems are very creative. Here are some tactics to watch for:

Hi, this is the Help Desk, there is a problem with your account, please tell me your password so I can fix it...

Please enter your LDAP password in order to unlock your account.

Ask yourself every time:
is this real, or a trick?

If you ever think you have been targeted by such an attack, report it FAST to cppm@lbl.gov. Others were probably targeted too...
