Facilities Planning is developing a website that will be LBNL's central location for information to sustainably achieve visual continuity, design consistency, and the near- and long-term viability in the development and redevelopment on the LBNL campus. The five sections of the website address a broad range and wealth of resources that include policies, planning and design documents, guidance for material selection, standard construction specifications and details, and feedback from the operations and maintenance of the campus and its facilities.

Campus Planning & Design Guidelines
- Campus Planning & Design Guidelines Website

Standard Specifications & Details
- Standard Specifications & Details